Dear Mr. Chairman:

This is in regard to your letter of 8 March 1978 to Admiral Turner concerning the Subcommittee's study as to the problems involved in criminal cases involving matters of national security.

My Office of Legislative Counsel will arrange informal discussions with our Offices of General Counsel and Inspector General on this matter in accordance with your request. I appreciate that this study is not intended to be duplicative of the review now being conducted by the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence.

Sincerely,
